Beloved in Christ,

One of the minor feasts of the Theotokos is that of the Holy Protection. Traditionally, this feast is assigned to the 1st of October. However, since World War II the Church of Greece has transferred it to the 28th of October, popularly known as “OXI Day.” Whether it is celebrated on the first or twenty-eighth of the month, its spiritual lessons and benefits for us remain the same.

First, let us review the background of this holy feast as taken from the Synaxarion. The feast of the Holy Protection of the Mother of God was established following a vision of our Holy Father Andrew, the Fool for Christ, during the course of a vigil in the Church of Blachernae at Constantinople. At the fourth hour of the night, while deep in prayer, the Saint lifted up his eyes to heaven and beheld the holy Mother of God watching over the congregation as she covered the faithful with her Veil. Epiphanious, the disciple of Saint Andrew, who was also accounted worthy of looking upon this wonder, confirmed the truth of the vision. Whereupon, the Saint hastened to the altar, opened the coffer containing the precious Veil of the Queen of the world and, standing in front of the royal doors, extended it above the worshippers. Upheld by an invisible power, the Veil hung in the air and was of such size as to entirely cover the great congregation. Then, amid a shattering burst of light, the Mother of God went up into Heaven and out of sight, but leaving the Christian people in possession of her holy Veil as a pledge of her loving Protection.

Many a time did the Mother of God give clear evidence of her protection of the imperial City and, by analogy, of the entire holy Church of Christ, which is the new Jerusalem. Indeed, everywhere and at every moment, the Sovereign Lady of the world casts her Veil mystically over Christians as she prays and makes intercession for the salvation of the world to her Son and Lord.

By understanding the role of the Theotokos in the life of the Church, we can thus clearly find a deeper meaning to the feast of the Holy Protection. Let us remember that the Holy Theotokos shares a relationship with Christ that is unique from that of any other human being. Simultaneously being Christ’s earthly mother as well as part of His creation is a mystery beyond our understanding. The Son and Word of God has existed eternally, prior to the creation of the world and the human race. Their unique relationship allows the holy Mother of God to have a closeness and boldness to intercede with her beloved Son on behalf of all of us.

Let us also remember that as Orthodox Christians, we have been grafted onto the Mystical Body of Christ. Therefore, by being one in Christ as fellow Christians, we also have the Theotokos as our heavenly Mother, who cares for us here in this world as we prepare for the next. Because of this love and concern for her children in Christ, we have seen countless miracles, apparitions, signs and wonders by the person of the Theotokos throughout the ages. The event of the Holy Protection described above, is just one more of these wondrous signs given for our reassurance and spiritual benefit.

In my opening paragraph I mention the translation of this feast to October 28th by the Church of Greece. The reason for this shift from the original date of October 1st was because of the miraculous defeat of Mussolini’s army by the Greeks after the Italian invasion of 1940, which brought Greece actively into World War II. There are many stories from Greek soldiers of the time, referencing apparitions of the Theotokos with messages of encouragement, as well as other miraculous events. By celebrating the Greek victory on OXI day along with the religious celebration of the Holy Protection, the Greek nation appropriately offers thanksgiving each year for its divinely assisted deliverance from the oppressor.

We today should also turn daily to the holy Mother of God for her help and guidance for our spiritual struggles, as well as for our health and well-being. As young children we all ran to our mother’s embrace when we were frightened or hurting. To this day we can clearly remember the loving protection and warmth felt during those moments in our mother’s arms. We can take those feelings to the spiritual level when we approach an icon of the Theotokos in our daily prayers. Her loving protection is there whenever we need it. So let us remember the story of the Holy Protection of our beloved Panayia not just every October, but also every time we turn to her in prayer.

In Christ,

+Fr. Anthony

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION RESUMES

As we did earlier this year, we will continue offering weekly adult religious education sessions on an alternating basis, on both Wednesday mornings and evenings. The first session will be on 10/18, starting with an abbreviated orthros at 10 am, followed by class in the conference room. Please note that there will be no vespers and class on 10/25, due to vespers for St. Demetrios at the two celebrating parishes.

For those who work during the day, we hope to see you at one of our Wednesday evening sessions which will begin with Small Vespers at 7 pm, followed by class in the conference room. Please refer to each month’s calendar for the schedule.
ATTENTION YOUNG ADULTS:
“ORTHODOXY ON TAP”
If you are a young adult, 21 or older, we have a special upcoming event planned for you and your Orthodox friends! Orthodoxy on Tap is a popular ministry of the Metropolis of Boston, especially in the Boston Metro Area. It is an opportunity to have relaxed fellowship over a glass of wine or beer, and to learn something about your faith and how it applies to your life. At these gatherings, Orthodox Christian presenters offer a short presentation and encourage a casual discussion.

Our plan is to team up with St. Catherine of Braintree, St. Gregory the Theologian of Mansfield and Panagia Church of Cohasset in order for young adults to meet their contemporaries from our neighboring parishes. The target date for this event is early to mid-November, so please look for more information once the details have been established. This will be announced in the November bulletin, and on the parish website and Facebook page. Make sure to tell a friend!

CONFLICTS WITH CHURCH SERVICES
As we bring to your attention annually at the beginning of each ecclesiastical year, all church ministries and organizations need to check the monthly bulletin calendar when planning meetings and activities. If an evening service or morning liturgy is scheduled, there cannot be meetings or events held simultaneously.

Some of the possible conflicts are as follows: on alternate Wednesday evenings we hold vespers followed by religious education, starting at 7 pm; periodically there are vespers for the great feast days, also at 7 pm; during Great Lent there are evening services on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, as well as a Friday morning liturgy. Again, all services will be posted in the calendar. We appreciate everyone’s anticipated cooperation with this request.

IN APPRECIATION
We wish to take this opportunity to offer sincere thanks to everyone involved with this year’s festival. We begin with our dedicated team of festival co-chairpersons – George Alexis, Tulla Giannaros, Liz Karolemeas, and Gee Mihos, and of course, the parish council which oversees this major event. They did a wonderful job planning and organizing the festival, with many improvements and enhancements to the status quo. Of course, a huge amount of gratitude goes to the Philoptochos ladies for the many weeks of cooking and baking the wonderful foods and pastries, and also to the men overseeing the prepping and grilling of meats, and carving gyros. So many others were involved with various booths and other aspects of the festival, especially the kitchen and salad crew who are instrumental. Only with everyone’s help and dedication can we make this an annual success. May God bless all of you and keep you well!

SPIRITUAL WISDOM
Acknowledge your sinfulness and pride and impatience, and humble yourself under the strong hand of God accusing no one but yourself, and then you will see divine help; how God will calm you and cause the hearts of those that oppose you to be favorably disposed towards you. (St. Macarius of Optina)

When you pray, keep close watch on your memory so that it does not distract you with recollections of your past. But make yourself aware that you are standing before God. (St. Evagrius the Solitary)

In all cases let us hasten to humility; for the humble one lies on the ground, and where can one fall who lies on the ground? But it is evident that one who is in a high place easily falls. (Sts. Barsanuphius and John)

The Lord desires one man to be saved through another, and in the same way Satan strives to destroy one man through another. (St. John of Karpathos)

Attend to your conscience, for we do not know the hour of our death. And if we do not repay our creditor (our conscience, that is) everything we owe him, he will accuse us vehemently, without holding back. Then – alas! – our mouth will be silenced, not having any answer to give. (Elder Ephraim of Arizona)

Depart from every man who loves to quarrel. (St. Pimen the Great)

NEW IOCC PARISH REPRESENTATIVES
Randy and Paula Odierno are pleased to announce their appointment as IOCC Parish Representatives for the Annunciation. The IOCC (International Orthodox Christian Charities) is a worldwide Orthodox Christian charitable organization. They help people both in the U.S. and internationally. We will be doing an IOCC Sunday later in the year, and are hoping to work with our many church ministries. We will need volunteers of all ages.

Hurricane Harvey and other catastrophes remind us just how important it is for all of us to come together and help others in need. We are pleased to announce that the recent special collection in church for Hurricane Harvey victims brought in about $600! If you have computer access you can read more at www.iocc.org. We welcome any interested parishioners to contact us via email at pckodierno@gmail.com, or through the church office. Thank you all!
10/2 – The Hieromartyr Cyprian and the Virgin Martyr Justina

Cyprian lived at Antioch in the reign of the Emperor Decius (249-51). He was rich and of noble birth and enjoyed a great reputation as a philosopher and magician. There dwelt in Antioch at that time a maiden of radiant beauty called Justa whose father, Aidesius, served as a priest of the idols.

One day she was among those listening to the preaching of the deacon Praulius who had come to spread the words of everlasting life among the people. Justa was so struck by what she heard that she straightway believed in Christ with all her heart. Such was the transformation wrought in her by faith and love for God, that her mother was drawn to join her and went on to convince her husband likewise, so that all three asked Bishop Optatus for holy baptism. Justa eventually made up her mind to consecrate her virginity to the Lord and to spend the rest of her life in chastity, fasting and prayer.

A young man called Aglaidas, who was a pagan, fell passionately in love with her. But seeing all his advances rejected, he applied in desperation to Cyprian for magic charms whereby passion might be given free rein in the body of the pure virgin. Cyprian consulted his books and called up the demons who were always at his command, but nothing he could do was able to tempt the maiden and let loose in her the fiery darts of lust, so powerful was her love for her heavenly Bridegroom.

Seeing the demons he had sent against her thrice vanquished by the grace of Christ and the sign of the Cross, Cyprian acknowledged that the Christian faith was more powerful than all his devilish tricks. He too believed and asked Bishop Anthimus for baptism, renounced his magical arts and publicly burned his books. Later on, he himself became bishop and ordained Justa as a deaconess with the name of Justina. During the persecution of Decius they were both arrested and taken to Damascus to be tortured. They were then brought before the Emperor at Nicomedia, where he ordered them to be beheaded.

10/16 – St. James Netsetov, Missionary in Alaska

Saint James was born in the island of Unalaska in 1802 of a Russian father and an Aleut mother. He completed his studies in the seminary at Irkutsk in Siberia, was ordained priest and returned to Alaska. He spent the next thirty-six years there, continuing the work of Saint Herman (13 Dec.) in a pastoral ministry to the native populations, which he carried on amid the hazardous conditions of life in those parts.

Weather permitting, he would board one of the frail kayaks or load his humble belongings onto a dog-sled, and accompanied by some young clergymen in lesser orders, would set out to carry the word of God to the scattered populations of the Aleutian Islands, and later, between 1845 and 1863, to the inhabitants of the lower Yukon valley. He was the first Orthodox priest since the holy Hieromartyr Juvenal, to venture into these territories. Although in general he was well-received and rapidly converted the indigenous population to the true faith, he sometimes had to deal with the determined opposition of the shamans.

His concern for the spiritual life of his flock extended from baptizing to teaching the elements of Christian morality, and the proper preparation for Holy Communion by fasting, confession and prayer. He carried a tent with him which served as a makeshift church, except when the bitter cold would freeze the sacred Species and so prevent a meeting for the Divine Liturgy. Besides his missionary journeys, he translated the New Testament and founded a school.

Towards the end of his life when he had expended his health in journeying, he was slandered by another missionary to Bishop Peter, Saint Innocent’s successor. Summoned to Sitka where the Bishop of Alaska had his see, he had no little difficulty in clearing his name. He gave up his soul to God at Sitka in 1865, and was buried there.

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of Father Anthony, and the Parish Council, I would like to express my deepest appreciation and gratitude to all the volunteers, donors and supporters of this year's food festival. As a result of your dedicated and tireless efforts working side by side in Christian fellowship over a 4 day period, our church experienced the most successful food festival both in revenue and enjoyment.

Though our festival was only open for four days to the public, many of our volunteers worked for weeks and even months in advance of the festival to make it a huge success. I'm sure you will agree with me that it is gratifying to see so many people give their time, talent and treasure for the benefit of our parish. A heartfelt thank you for a job well done is extended to all the men, women and children of our parish, as well as the four co-chairs, Jimmy Mihos, George Alexis, Tulla Giannaros and Liz Karolemes, who dedicated countless hours preparing, organizing and working our festival. All of you that were able to be part of this enormous undertaking are to be applauded. You are truly the backbone and the catalyst that led to our record breaking festival results.

In past bulletins, I have talked about stewardship projects undertaken by members of our community. These individuals have greatly assisted our church by dedicating their time, talents and/or treasures when our parish needed it the most. Just recently, stewardship was hard at work again!

I would like to sincerely thank Mr. Victor Fernandez, of Thermal Products, Inc. for donating his time and skilled carpentry talents in the build out of shelving to our newly constructed shed which will house all of the items used for our festival. Thanks to the generosity and efforts of Mr. Fernandez, we now have freed up much-needed storage space inside the church.

Also, I would like to once again thank Mr. George Zervas, of G&Z Construction, as well as Illias Potsis and George Panagoulopoulos for putting the final touches on our beautifully displayed Tree of Life by installing the dove and (4) additional rocks completing this project. I welcome those families who have not yet had an opportunity to purchase a rock or a leaf, to come by the church office and place your order with the inscription you would like to see on your rock or leaf commemorating your loved ones and/or family.

Your Parish Council at the conclusion of this year's festival was hard at work again. Wanting to continue to be proactive in preserving and beautifying our church, they undertook yet another project that was completed in one week's time. They voted and swiftly acted on making a much needed repair to the main parking lot. The work undertaken was to eliminate all the large cracks and the repair the large patches of broken asphalt which created a hazard in the main parking area. Also, the entire parking lot was seal coated and re-striped. I am certain that as stewards of our parish, we take pride in this most recent improvement which in turn will provide a long-term benefit for all of us as a community.

The parish council and I are currently reaching out to you, our family of 350 Stewards for your continued financial assistance. Please consider making a separate donation of $100 towards the maintenance reserve account. With 100% participation we can offset this small but necessary expense to our parking lot which carried a cost of $21,200.00 to complete. Please note, that all of the projects performed during the summer months and now in the fall have all been paid in full without the need to borrow money.

The parish council and I look forward to your ongoing support and generosity so that we may be able to replenish our maintenance reserve account for the next project which will be to repair the ceiling and paint the walls in our church proper.

I am certain you will agree that throughout the year, together we have been making positive strides in beautifying our church and preserving and strengthening the bond among all our parishioners.

Important upcoming date's that we look forward to seeing everyone attend:

Saturday, November 4, 2017

A Night at the Taverna

Sponsored by our AHEPA Lord Byron's chapter benefiting the scholarship fund for our youth. Event will be held in the community center. For tickets please see the church office.

Sunday, November 12, 2017

Fall General Assembly

The Parish Council will be providing a complimentary luncheon where we can all come together in Christian fellowship and enjoy each other's company as we discuss the State of the Church. In order for the parish council to properly prepare for this luncheon and the fall general assembly, we ask that you kindly call the Church Office to reserve your seat no later than Monday November 6th, 2017.

"On a team, it's not the strength of the individual players, but it is the strength of the unit and how they all function together."

Respectfully yours,

Nicholas H. Babanikas

PTO FOR GREEK SCHOOL

Parents of the Greek school and members of the Brockton’s community, this year a PTO for our Greek School will be established because working together we can accomplish great things. There is a volunteer opportunity to fit the needs and talents of anyone who would like to be involved in supporting student activities.

If you are interested in helping please contact Mrs. Claire Iosifidis via email at Claire_ios@yahoo.com.

PTO FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

In a recent meeting of the Sunday School teachers, it was decided that a PTO for our church school program should be established. A PTO would be extremely valuable in terms of parental assistance with the general program, and with periodic events of our Sunday School. The PTO will consist of the substitute Sunday School teachers, along with parents dedicated to the continued success of our church school. If you are interested, please contact your child's Sunday School teacher or a committee member to add your name to the list. We appreciate your anticipated involvement and support!

GOYA NEWS

Elections for GOYA took place and we had lots of participants this week and hope to have even more at our next meeting! Our new officers for President Vice President and Secretary/Treasurer are:

President: Ariana Buterbaugh
Vice President Andre Cathcart
Secretary/Treasurer: Peter Athas

We are going to be starting the new year strong with IOCC baskets for the people in need that were sadly hit by hurricane Irma. We will be collecting food, money and items. It's a very sad thing that happened but hopefully we can help them out with things they need. Next month we will be having our annual harvest party on October 27th don’t forget to dress up. We would like to thank all who ran for officers and hope we have a great year full of fun activities.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Applications for Church Scholarships are now available in the office.

All students that graduated from high school in 2017 are eligible.
